SITE RULES

1. Campers and all visitors must report to the Warden on arrival and departure from site.
2. Unloading and loading may be carried out on the main track adjacent to individual sites at the discretion of the Warden. Vehicles must be returned to the car park immediately.
3. Pits must not be dug.
4. All rubbish to be removed from site. Details of a local disposal site are displayed on noticeboard.
5. Altar fires or slab bases must be used for open fires. No turfs are to be cut. Open fires must be of a controlled size and not left unattended. Do not pour water onto fires to extinguish – this can cause cracks in concrete.
6. Growing timber must not be cut or damaged.
7. All bivouacs or shelters built to be dismantled before leaving the site.
8. Do not waste electricity, gas, water or wood – all unburnt wood to be left by altar fire bases.
9. No washing up is to be done at water taps or in the toilet block, use the outside washing up area behind the toilet block.
10. The cleanliness of the toilets is the responsibility of all campers. Where more than one group is on site a cleaning rota will be established by the Warden. NO BLEACH IS TO BE USED. Full instructions with cleaning equipment can be found in cupboard in the over 18 male section of the toilets.
11. To protect the function of the septic tank, chemical toilets are not allowed and nothing other than human waste and toilet tissue should be flushed down the toilets.
12. The use of motor cycles, go-karts, cycles, guns, catapults and fireworks and archery are prohibited on Site.
13. Noise to be kept to a minimum between 22:30 h and 07:00h.
14. All accidents must be reported to the Warden and recorded in the accident book at Royden House.
15. Dogs are not encouraged. If they are temporarily on site, they must be on a lead and any mess cleared up.
16. If Headley Heath is to be used for activities, the National Trust Warden must be told (Tel: 01306 888793) and the National Trust rules respected.
17. Before departure, the site used and/or the Manly Building must be inspected by the warden or a member of the Management Committee.
